Dear Mr. Correa:

Your May 6 letter addressed to the FBI's Baltimore office has been referred to the FBI's Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division, Clarksburg, West Virginia, for response to you.

You state in your letter that another individual has used your name when arrested and that his offenses appear on your record. To resolve this matter, we suggest two actions you may take.

First, you may obtain and review your FBI identification record or "rap sheet." After reviewing the record, you can specifically address any item that you believe is incorrect. To obtain the record, you will need to submit a written request, a new set of your fingerprints, and the required $18 fee. If you are unable to pay the fee, you may submit a claim and proof of indigence, such as an affidavit of indigence and a current inmate account statement. Enclosed for your assistance are an applicant fingerprint card and a reprint of U.S. Department of Justice Order 556-73 which details the procedure for an individual to request his FBI rap sheet.

Secondly, if you know that another individual has used your name, you can submit a request to state officials to review that individual's record and, if possible, remove your name and any other descriptors of yours from that record. You may wish to address such a request to the following state agencies:

Mr. Guango Correa, 00180807

State Bureau of Identification
Post Office Box 430
Dover, DE 19903

Department of Correction
245 McKee Road
Dover, DE 19904

The State Bureau of Identification can forward any necessary corrections to the FBI's CJIS Division.

Sincerely yours,
